

How do you know your child is ready for group learning?

Child acquires new skills in a: 1:1 situation	Child acquires new skills in a: small group	Child acquires new skills in a: In classroom/large group
Child is learning to follow basic adult directives	Child is learning to comply to demands with other peers nearby	Child is learning to comply to demands with other peers
Child is able to communicate basic wants & needs	Child is ready/learning to engage in activities with peers	Child is ready/learning to engage in activities with groups
Child has low rates of aggressive behaviors	Child has low rates of aggressive behaviors with peers	Child has near 0 rates of aggressive behaviors with peers
Child is able to delay reinforcement for several minutes	Child is learning/ready to delay reinforcement with peers	Child is eady to delay reinforcement with peers
Move to next level	Move to next level	Great!